And
Lion's Club of Asansol East

Preamble: The Women's Cell of Banwarilal Bhalotia College Asansol under the aegis of IQAC and in collaboration with Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan, Paschim Bardhaman (Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Govt. of India) and Lion's Club of Asansol East has organised the "International Women's Day" celebration Program. The college sincerely tries to acknowledge and celebrate different achievements of women personalities. B. B. College envisioned to manifest the culture of gender parity within the campus and in the society at large by sensitizing the students and encouraging the girl students. Various programs like seminars, debate competition, extempore, workshop, awareness and cultural programs are organized throughout the year to fulfil this vision.

Participant's Profile:

Around one hundred and thirty five registered participants, the majority are the students and teachers of B. B. College, Asansol, distinguished persons from Lions Club Asansol and representatives and volunteers of Nehru Yuva Kendra.

Description about the Program:

The program was initiated by Dr. Snigdha Roy, Convenor of Women's Cell with her brief inaugural speech. Prof. Baijayanti Mukherjee beautifully recited a very relevant poem named "Sita". After the felicitation program, Dr. Amitava Basu, the Principal of the College then delivered his speech explaining the significance and purpose of the program to be organized. In the technical session, first the convenor madam thoroughly described the journey of the cell through a pictorial power point presentation. The first invited guest of the program, Dr. Savera Sharma shared her speech on the topic of "Changing the Role of Women". In her speech, she highlighted the various societal contributions of today's women and their changing role to play. The session was an interactive one and the honourable speakers answered many queries raised by the participants. Mr. Surendra Kr. Kamani, the President of Lion's Club of Asansol East and Secretary Mrs. Jayanti Mallick along with their distinguished colleagues honoured Dr. Amitava Basu with prestigious Melvin Jones Fellowship. Secretary madam profoundly appreciated Dr. Basu for his effective work and contribution. The next speaker of the program, Prof. Madhumita Jajodia, Principal of Durgapur Women's College presented her speech on "Tragedy to Triumph.....Enabling Families to Empower Differently Abled Children". Her speech melted the audience with great emotion and inspiration. Mr. Pradip Saha, the Deputy Youth Coordinator of the Nehru Yuva Kendra Paschim Bardhaman, Ministry of Youth affairs for Spots, Government of India, in his address, emphasized the role of Nehru Yuva Kendra in strengthening the youth power and the need of collective action through many programs focusing on gender equality, awareness and skill enhancement. A poster cum painting competition was also organized as a part of the celebration on the topic of "Life Is Tough, But So Are Women". The competition was judged by Smt. Jayanti Mallick and Dr. Nabanita Banerjee madam. Selected awardee candidates were rewarded with certificates in the program. Honourable Principal, Prof. Madhumita Jajodia and Smt. Jayanti Mallick handed over the certificates to the participants. Dr. Kakali Kundu, teaching member of the College has recited a beautiful poem at the end of the program. Dr. Laila Mitra, Member of Women's Cell of the College then proposed the Vote of Thanks. The entire programme was co-ordinated with the support of the Principal, GB, IQAC, Women's Cell, faculties, TCS and ATCS, office staff, and the students of the B. B. College.

Preamble: The Women’s Cell of Banwarilal Bhalotia College, Asansol under the aegis of IQAC has organised the webinar on “Government Schemes and Empowerment: Know, Inspire, Connect”. The College believes in acknowledging and advancing the achievements of women. B. B. College reinforced the power of collective action for reaching gender parity through some meaningful events like seminar, awareness program, debate competition and cultural programs.

Description about the Program:

The inaugural session on 23rd September, 2021 opened with a speech of Dr. Snigdha Roy, the Convener of the Women’s Cell, B. B. College on the effort of the College in spreading the awareness of different Govt. schemes for all students. Then, Dr. Amitava Basu, Principal, B. B. College in his address, emphasized the role of gender sensitization within the college campus and the continuous effort of the Women's Cell for the upliftment of the women. He has also emphasized the endeavour of the cell by organizing different programmes.

The technical session of the webinar was introduced by one of the members of the Women's Cell, B. B. College, Dr. Laila Mitra. She briefly described the aim of the webinar and introduced the keynote speaker, Dr. Nabanita Banerjee, another member of the cell and also advocate as well as solicitor in Asansol Court. Dr. Nabanita Banerjee vividly explained different central and state schemes for students in lucid language. Smt. Jayanti Mallick, a reputed social activist and an External Member of the Governing Body of the college conducted the interactive session. Vote of thanks was given by another member of the cell, Prof. Baijayanti Mukhopadhyay. The entire programme was co-ordinated with the support of the Principal, GB, IQAC, Women's Cell, faculties, TCS and ATCS, office staff, and the students of the B. B. College.

Feedback:

All the students, the teachers and the staff, the participants from other Colleges, expressed their gratitude to the Women's Cell B. B. College, Asansol for the webinar. The local press also praised the endeavour of the college in this respect.

Future Perspectives:

The Women's Cell of the college is looking forward to organize similar conferences in times to help the student community as well as to strengthen the ideology of women empowerment.

Women's Cell Induction Program

Banwarilal Bhalotia College, Asansol

Date: 9th December, 2021

Time: 12 Noon onward

Venue: Vivekananda Seminar Hall

Preamble: The Women's Cell of Banwarilal Bhalotia College, Asansol under the aegis of IQAC has organised an Induction Program for the newly joined College students.

Description about the Program:

The program was initiated by Dr. Snigdha Roy, the Convener of the Women's Cell, B. B. College. She introduced the Cell with the newly joined College students and briefly spoke on the activity of the Cell. Prof. Baijayanti Mukhopadhyay, member of the Cell beautifully explained the necessity of the Cell and its function within the College campus. She has also highlighted the present social status of women and the need of different awareness and empowerment program for the overall upliftment of women in our country. All the Cell members were introduced to the freshers. Participants were well informed about the process how to contact with the Cell members and get the facility from the committee. Dr. Snigdha Roy then shared a short power point presentation to elucidate the operational aspects of the Cell more clearly. Dr. Amitava Basu, Principal, B. B. College in his address, emphasized the role of gender sensitization within the college campus and the continuous effort of the Women's Cell towards this aim. Ms. Amrita Pal, another member of the Cell also shared her important views on different aspects of women's life in our society and their unfortunate conditions. Student of Bengali department shared her courageous story how she fought against her own parents to cancel her unconsented marriage. Several other student participants also shared their own life experiences and knowledge about women's struggle and various societal impediments that hamper the growth of any women in our country. They have also tried to put forward their own views and suggestions to overcome the problems and underlying misconceptions about the strength and ability of women. The program was ended with the vote of thanks, proposed by Dr. Laila Mitra, another active member of the Cell. Dr. Mitra extends her sincere thanks to the Principal, GB, IQAC, Women's Cell, faculties, TCS and ATCS, office staff, and the students of the B. B. College for their active support and participation in making the program successful.

Feedback:

All the freshers and other participants expressed their thanks to the Cell members for organizing the Induction program. Some of them also expressed their strong willingness to work as active member of the committee. The local press also praised and acknowledged the endeavour of the college in this respect.

Future Perspectives:

The Women's Cell of the college is looking forward to organize similar program every year to sensitize the freshers of the College about the Cell and its effective contributions.
