EARN WHILE YOU LEARN PROGRAMME

Organized by NSS, BB COLLEGE, ASANSOL in collaboration with PIDILITE INDUSTRIES, INDIA

Number of students who participated in the activity: 132

Objective

The B.B. College fraternity endeavoured to make students self-reliant and multifaceted, to partially fulfill their needs in academics and other sectors in life. The key objective of this program is to promote the overall development of a student with his academic excellence, especially in case of students from rural areas and economically backward families, by encouraging them to move towards economic self-reliance.

The Program

In this constant endeavor our college has facilitated interested students with the techniques of preparing useful things using waste and thrown-out materials. They have learnt to make home décor items like flower vas, wall décor using discarded plastic goods and old cloths. Here they are trained to prepare 'Bandhni' and 'fabric print' on cloths, making flower pots with cement and painting the pots, and so many more such other activities which claim a huge demand in the market now a days. For this, college aids the students by providing raw materials free of cost, and also the space and equipment to facilitate their performances. Towards this goal, the Fevicryl of the Pidilite Industries have extended their hands to help students by purchasing their well-crafted products. Fevicryl also arrange an end course assessment for handicraft learners, where successful students may also serve as trainer in their organization. Our college also arranges display stalls periodically to promote their hand made products.

Outcome/ achievements ensured by the activity

Name of the event (with place and date): BLOOD DONATION CAMP (16th September, 2023)

Name of the collaborating agency: JOINT COLLABORATION WITH NSS, BB COLLEGE, AND WBCUPA, ASANSOL

Number of students who participated in the activity: 152

Very brief description of the activity: On the day of the camp, the chief motivators along with the team of volunteers and the blood bank team reached on time. The donors were warmly received, guided, and escorted through different stages. Presentation of mementos, badges, and certificates with courtesy and sincerity, and answering all queries of donors were considered as part of donor motivation. The refreshment corner was well managed. This being the last point of the camp, they left a permanent impression in the minds of the donors. Talking with the donor throughout all the stages was extremely important, as it helps donors to feel wanted and also helps the first-time donors to shed their fear. Donors' blood cards were made available to the donors in time directly or through their local organizers. Refreshments were offered neatly with a friendly gesture and hospitality. The motivators understood the significance of serving refreshments to keep the donor engaged under the watchful eyes of socio-medical volunteers or the medical officer. The donors were made to understand that refreshment has nothing to do with immediate recuperation of blood loss due to donation. A piping hot or cold drink and light refreshment were offered to compel the donor to spend some time in a relaxed mood. It was taught that whatever be the items of refreshment, they should be served neatly and nicely with a smile. Other college students effectively participated in this camp strengthening community growth and development.

Outcome/ achievements ensured by the activity:

1. It becomes an effective input source of blood for blood banks.
2. Students get more awareness and understand the significance of 'blood donation'.
3. The group activity removes fear and motivates new students to become a proud blood donor.
4. Ensuring the achievement of community outreach objectives, as several participants from outside our college joined the endeavour.

Date and venue: 6th February 2024, BBA-BCA Conference Room, Banwarilal Bhalotia College.

Number of participants: 25 students and 3 faculty members

Aim of the workshop: To enthuse students towards financial independence by training them in chocolate making, and acquainting them with the fundamentals of the food industry.

Short description of the event: Swabalamban Cell has been striving to promote entrepreneurial skills among students and other stakeholders since its inception. This session, the Cell decided to conduct a workshop on chocolate making. Chocolate has traditionally been a favourite food item for young and old alike, and seems to be one of the most appropriate entry-points for young entrepreneurs who seek knowledge about the goings-on of the food industry. The Cell invited Smt. Piyali Sen and Smt. Soma Sen from Rekhanjali Art and Craft, Burnpur to train students interested in chocolate making. The resource persons also shared their valuable experience about the food industry with our budding entrepreneurs. The Cell was able to motivate some students from neighbouring colleges to join the workshop, as part of its commitment to extending its activities beyond the campus of Banwarilal Bhalotia College. Our enthusiastic participants were also joined by three faculty members from Banwarilal Bhalotia College.

Outcome of the event:

The students learnt the basic skills of chocolate making, and were motivated towards financial independence through the application of their skills. Participants were presented with certificates upon completion of the workshop.
