

Dear Colleagues and Students,

We are going to celebrate the World Digital Preservation Day at our college on 29 November 2018 at 12 noon followed by a workshop on Digital Preservation of Cultural Heritage. Resource persons from School of Cultural Text and Records, JU will share their experience with the participants of the workshop.

All are cordially welcome to attend the opening session and participate in the workshop.